

Dear all,

It's great to see all the children back after half term, refreshed and ready to go! This is the half term where everything goes a bit Christmas crazy! We look forward to inviting you in for the Christmas festivities over the next 6 weeks.

This week has been fun packed with a variety of things. Year 3 have started their swimming sessions at the Nuffield Centre and Alloa Class managed to finally dip their toes in the river at the Gilbert White Centre.

Year 6 have had a truly immersive experience into the world of the Ancient Greeks this week. With a visit from the Greek God, Zeus before half term telling them to prepare a variety of things in readiness for the great feast! They had honed their sowing skills to make Greek slippers, practised their cooking skills to produce fabulous Moussaka and wore some beautiful costumes to get into the true spirit of the civilisation. The pupils have thoroughly enjoyed learning about the Ancient Greeks and impressed Zeus so much that they enjoyed a feast together after a morning of Olympic themed activities.

Mrs Barber, our Early Years leader has finished today to start her maternity leave, we wish her the very best of luck!
