

Pupil A - Piece D: a story

Context: the class had read Monkey Puzzle by Julia Donaldson and were asked to write their own alternative story. Pupils had used a story map to plan and edit their ideas before writing.

The Leopard Puzzle
In the deep dark jungle ~~the~~ was a leopard who cried out "I lost my daddy!
Waaaaa!" Out of nowhere a butterfly came and said jiggily "I will help you find her him!" "How big?" asked butterfly. leopard shouted "Bigger than me." So butterfly took leopard to Elephant.
"No no no." "That's an elephant", leopard roared "my dad doesn't have 4 legs and wobbly knees and anyway my dad's tail coils around trees. "Coils around trees?"
"Then I know where your dad is."
"No no no. That's a snake. My dad is not a reptile and he's not Slimy."

and anyway my dad is a mammal ~~##~~ and he's up high" said little leopard.

~~S~~ butterfly took him to a tocher

bird. "No no no." that's a tocher bird.

My ~~mom~~ dad doesn't have wings or flthars," "and anyway my dad looks like me!" "Why didn't you say so?"

Butter fly ~~but~~ brought ~~u~~ him to mum.

"No no no that's my ~~dad~~ mum." "Come little monkey come come <sup>its time</sup> I took you <sup>home</sup> to dad.
